Khawaja Bagh Stars Work Done & Impact Report

11 August 2026 | Ompora, Budgam, Jammu & Kashmir

DOCUMENTED INTERVENTION

Bhat Foundation Welfare Society supported Khawaja Bagh Stars with team uniforms and other sports items. The supplied photographic evidence shows distribution/presentation of branded sports uniforms on 11 August 2026 at the Foundation's Ompora location.

01 | Executive Summary

Bhat Foundation Welfare Society undertook a youth sports-support intervention for Khawaja Bagh Stars on 11 August 2026. The activity focused on providing sports uniforms and other sports items to support participation, team identity and organised sporting activity.

What was done

- Sports uniforms were provided to members or representatives of Khawaja Bagh Stars.
- Photographs document multiple recipients receiving or presenting the uniform kit with Bhat Foundation Welfare Society branding.
- The activity was documented at Ompora, Budgam, with GPS Camera Lite overlays showing the same location and date across the photographs.
- The intervention links material sports support with youth participation and community-based sporting activity.

EVIDENCE BASIS

The report is based on the photographs supplied for this activity. The images visibly support uniform distribution/presentation and the event date/location overlay. A precise quantity of uniforms, monetary value, and complete inventory of additional sports items are not stated in the supplied evidence and are therefore not invented.

02 | Project Profile

YOUTH SPORTS DEVELOPMENT THROUGH MATERIAL SUPPORT
Implementing organisation	Bhat Foundation Welfare Society

Implementation narrative

The photographic record shows Bhat Foundation Welfare Society representatives handing over or presenting sports uniforms to multiple individuals associated with Khawaja Bagh Stars. The uniforms carry the Foundation's branding, creating a clear visual connection between the support and the implementing organisation.

Activity components

- Beneficiary/team engagement and handover.
- Provision of team/sports uniforms.
- Provision/support of other sports items, as stated for the intervention.
- On-site photographic documentation.
- Location and date documentation through GPS Camera Lite overlays.

Operational value

ACCESS

Sports uniforms are a practical participation input and can reduce the need for players or families to independently arrange team kit.

TEAM IDENTITY

Common uniforms help create team identity and visible representation during practices, matches and community activities.

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

Supporting organised sports provides a structured activity through which young people can develop participation, teamwork, discipline and physical activity habits.

04 | Impact Framework

The immediate output documented in the photographs is the provision of uniforms and sports-related material support. The broader social impact should be treated as an expected pathway unless supported by follow-up records.

LEVEL	DOCUMENTED / EXPECTED CHANGE	INDICATOR FOR FUTURE TRACKING
INPUT	Uniforms and other sports items provided.	Number and type of items supplied.
OUTPUT	Players/team representatives received sports support.	Number of players/beneficiaries receiving items.
SHORT-TERM OUTCOME	Improved access to team-appropriate sports clothing and equipment.	Regular use during training/matches.
MEDIUM-TERM OUTCOME	Potentially stronger team participation, identity and continuity.	Training frequency, match participation, retention.
COMMUNITY IMPACT	Contribution to constructive youth engagement through organised sport.	Activities, tournaments and youth participants.

Why this support matters

- Equipment and uniforms are enabling resources for teams with limited material resources.
- Uniform support can create a shared team identity and improve practical readiness for organised sporting activities.
- Community sports programmes can create structured opportunities for young people to participate in healthy, supervised and team-oriented activities.
- The intervention demonstrates a tangible form of youth-focused community support that can be strengthened through future partnerships.

05 | Beneficiary Engagement & Handover

The supplied photographs show repeated handover/presentation moments involving different individuals and a Bhat Foundation representative. The repeated documentation provides visual evidence that the activity involved multiple recipients rather than a single image.

Across the photographs, the same Foundation backdrop, location and date overlay appear consistently. This supports their use as field documentation for the same activity.

06 | Field Documentation & Verification

The photographs contain GPS Camera Lite metadata overlays. The visible overlays consistently identify the vicinity as near Railway Station, Ompora, 191111 and show 11 August 2026. The displayed coordinates vary slightly between photographs, consistent with photographs taken at different points within the same site.

VERIFICATION NOTE

The photographs establish visual documentation of the activity and its location/date overlays. They do not, by themselves, establish the exact number of uniforms, monetary cost, or exact inventory of additional sports items.

07 | Social Impact Narrative

EQUIPPING YOUTH • STRENGTHENING TEAM SPIRIT • SUPPORTING COMMUNITY SPORT

A sports team needs practical resources such as uniforms and sporting equipment alongside talent and motivation. By providing material support to Khawaja Bagh Stars, the Foundation addressed a concrete participation need while reinforcing the visibility of organised youth sport in the community.

Potential beneficiary-level benefits

- Greater access to appropriate sportswear for participating players.
- Reduced pressure on players or families to arrange team uniforms independently.
- Improved sense of team identity through common kit.
- Greater readiness for organised practices, matches and community sporting activities.
- Positive recognition of youth sports participation within the local community.

Potential community-level benefits

- Encourages structured and constructive engagement among young people.
- Strengthens local sports groups by addressing basic material needs.
- Creates opportunities for community participation and teamwork.
- Provides a platform for future sports-development partnerships, tournaments and coaching initiatives.
